

Measures of Central Tendency

Mean, Median, and Mode are statistical measures that help us describe the behavior of a collection of data points.

Individual data points are lost in this picture!

Mean= $\text{datapoints} / \# \text{of datapoints}$

Median ignores extremes

Mode= the most common value in the data set